DEFENDANTS

ORDER

The joint motion to approve the settlement, No. 13, is granted. All material things considered, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Lynn's Food Stores, Inc. v. United States, 679 F.2d 1350, 1353 (11th Cir. 1982); see also Melgar v. OK Foods, 902 F.3d 775, 779 (8th Cir. 2018). The settlement reflects a good-faith compromise of disputed overtime compensation issues. Given the modest lawyers' fees, the Court doesn't need to review billing records; the fees are fair and reasonable. McMillan-Gadison's complaint will be dismissed with prejudice.

So Ordered.
